NIOS Regional Centre Delhi organized the Learners' Engagement Activity 2015 at Regional Centre Delhi campus, A-31 Sector-62 Noida on 7th December 2015.

The open areas of Regional Centre Delhi campus was decorated with LEA standees, Banners and tricolor Balloons. The air was filled with a feeling of warmth and enthusiasm. Learners who came, knew it was going to be a day filled with joy and fun. On entering the campus, AIs teams registered their names and were given Caps, Keychain and Carry bag with NIOS logo. A feeling of excitement was visible on all the faces.

Inaugural Ceremony

The traditional colourful Rangoli made with flowers was inviting Learners and all present gathered around the rangoli. To invoke God's presence and seek his blessing, the traditional lamp was lit by Sh Gurdev Singh, Assistant Director, Sh P M Pankaj, Assistant Director (On Demand) and four Judges.

The programme began with Sh Gurdev Singh Assistant Director warmly welcomed all the learners to the event. To familiarize learners about the progress of the day, Sh Gurdev Singh, Assistant Director provided an overview of Learner Engagement Activity 2015.

The first activity was Yoga which helped learners to pep up/warm up for the day. After the Yoga exercises, the learners assembled in the Hall to view the A-View meeting of LEA Activity 2015 which was telecast from NIOS studio. In the A-View meeting, the learners of different AI's of different Regional Centres got a chance to ask questions which were satisfactorily answered by the Hon'ble Chairman. This exercise gave a feeling to learners present that they could clear the doubts when required.

After the A-View presentations, learners went into their respective groups as per their planned activities.

Activity No 2 Role Play

A total of 33 groups participated in the Role Play Competition. The groups were motivated and mentored by tutors of concerned AIs to give out their best. The topics were given to groups earlier so that they could plan, discussed and made a thorough rehearsal. From their performance, it was easy to guess that the groups had given adequate attention in developing the contents. The team work and cooperative attitude of the actors in making play successful could be felt. Each of the actors was enthusiastic.
